

WITH THE MOST SERIES WINS OF ANY NETWORK and the most honored series at the 69th Annual Golden Globe® Awards, the most scripted series nominations of any network at the 2012 Writers Guild Awards, and recently receiving 22 nominations across seven series in key categories at the 2012 Primetime Emmy Awards, SHOWTIME ORIGINAL SERIES continue to make their mark on the cultural landscape.

DEXTER stars Michael C. Hall in his Golden Globe® Award-winning role as Dexter Morgan, a complicated and conflicted blood-spatter expert for the Miami police department who moonlights as a serial killer. DEXTER® is the No. 1 rated series on SHOWTIME, watched by nearly 5.5 million weekly viewers across platforms.

HOMELAND, a one-hour drama series, tells the story of Carrie Mathison (Claire Danes), a CIA officer battling her own demons, who becomes convinced that the intelligence that led to the rescue of U.S. soldier Nicholas Brody (Damian Lewis) was a set-up and may be connected to Al Qaeda. HOMELAND ranks as the network's highest-rated freshman series ever, averaging 4.4 million weekly viewers across platforms in its first season.

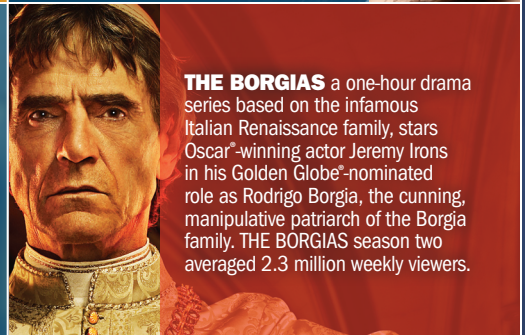

SHAMELESS stars Academy Award® nominee William H. Macy, as patriarch Frank Gallagher, and Golden Globe® nominee Emmy Rossum as his daughter Fiona, who typically bears the de facto parent badge/burden for the family. SHAMELESS averaged 4.8 million weekly viewers across platforms in its second season, up 27 percent from its freshman season and ranks as the network's second highest-rated show, sitting just behind DEXTER®.

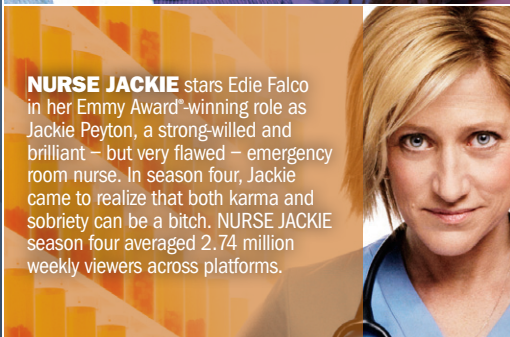

HOUSE OF LIES starring Academy Award® nominee Don Cheadle, is a timely, dark comedy that dives head first into the shark tank known as corporate America. Season one averaged 3.2 million weekly viewers across platforms and the series now ranks as the network's top rated comedy.

EPISODES stars Matt LeBlanc in his Golden Globe® Award-winning role as a fictional version of himself. The series centers around Sean and Beverly Lincoln (Stephen Mangan and Tamsin Greig), a husband-and-wife producing team who are forced to navigate the many pitfalls of the Hollywood television business. Season two averaged 1.78 million viewers per week across platforms.

THE BORGIAS a one-hour drama series based on the infamous Italian Renaissance family, stars Oscar®-winning actor Jeremy Irons in his Golden Globe®-nominated role as Rodrigo Borgia, the cunning, manipulative patriarch of the Borgia family. THE BORGIAS season two averaged 2.3 million weekly viewers.

NURSE JACKIE stars Edie Falco in her Emmy Award®-winning role as Jackie Peyton, a strong-willed and brilliant – but very flawed – emergency room nurse. In season four, Jackie came to realize that both karma and sobriety can be a bitch. NURSE JACKIE season four averaged 2.74 million weekly viewers across platforms.

THE BIG C stars Laura Linney in her Golden Globe®-winning role as Cathy Jamison, a reserved, Minneapolis wife/mother/teacher whose cancer diagnosis forces her to shake up her life and find hope, humor and the light side of a dark situation. Season three averaged 2.12 million weekly viewers across platforms.

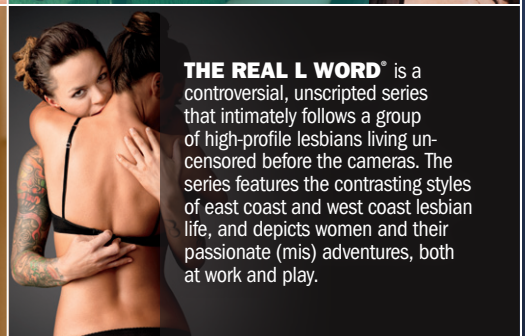

WEEDS stars Mary-Louise Parker in her Golden Globe® Award-winning performance as Nancy Botwin, who viewers have seen progress from a suburban widow who turns to selling nickel bags to make ends meet for her family to a full-fledged marijuana queenpin. The series averaged 3.5 million weekly viewers weekly across platforms.

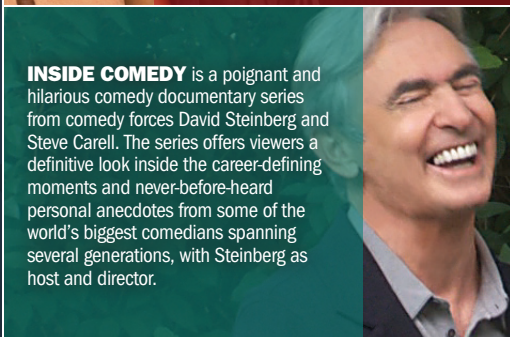

CALIFORNICATION stars David Duchovny in his Golden Globe® Award-winning role as hedonistic novelist Hank Moody, who is co-parenting his college-aged daughter Becca (Madeleine Martin), while still carrying a torch for her mother, his ex-girlfriend and muse Karen (Natascha McElhone). Season five averaged 2.3 million viewers across platforms, one of its highest-rated seasons yet.

WEB THERAPY stars Emmy® Award-winning actress Lisa Kudrow as "Dr. Fiona Wallace," a self-professed and self-serving psychotherapist who treats patients via webcam in three-minute sessions. The season's incredible roster of guest stars includes Meryl Streep, David Schwimmer, Alan Cumming, Rosie O'Donnell, Conan O'Brien, Minnie Driver, Molly Shannon and Selma Blair.

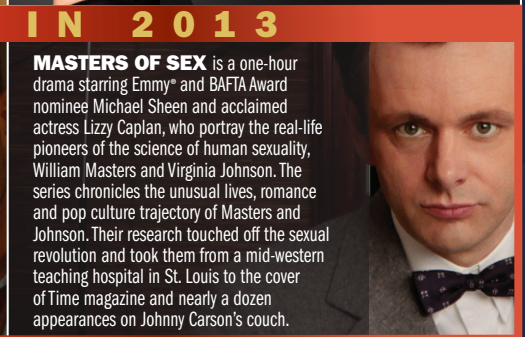

THE REAL L WORD® is a controversial, unscripted series that intimately follows a group of high-profile lesbians living uncensored before the cameras. The series features the contrasting styles of east coast and west coast lesbian life, and depicts women and their passionate (mis) adventures, both at work and play.

INSIDE COMEDY is a poignant and hilarious comedy documentary series for comedy forces David Steinberg and Steve Carell. The series offers viewers a definitive look inside the career-defining moments and never-before-heard personal anecdotes from some of the world's biggest comedians spanning several generations, with Steinberg as host and director.

RAY DONOVAN, a one-hour drama set in the sprawling mecca of the rich and famous, the series does the dirty work for L.A.'s top power players. The series stars Emmy® and Golden Globe® Award nominee Liev Schreiber in his first lead television role as the go-to guy who makes the problems of the city's celebrities, superstar athletes, and business moguls disappear. This powerful family drama unfolds when his father, played by Oscar® winner Jon Voight, is unexpectedly released from prison, setting off a chain of events that shakes the Donovan family to its core.

MASTERS OF SEX is a one-hour drama starring Emmy® and BAFTA Award nominee Michael Sheen and acclaimed actress Lizzy Caplan, who portray the real-life pioneers of the science of human sexuality, William Masters and Virginia Johnson. The series chronicles the unusual lives, romance and pop culture trajectory of Masters and Johnson. Their research touched off the sexual revolution and took them from a mid-western teaching hospital in St. Louis to the cover of Time magazine and nearly a dozen appearances on Johnny Carson's couch.
